Maker at the Mill

is a curated exhibition in the House Mill gallery space. Each maker will exhibit one piece or a collection inspired by the fabric or history of the site, a remarkable 18th Century Grade 1 listed building located in the heart of London's East End, believed to be the world's largest remaining tidal mill.

OPENING

Sunday 22 July 11am–4pm

EXHIBITION CONTINUES

25 July–9 September 2012

Wednesday–Sunday 11am–4pm

LATE NIGHTS/EVENING EVENTS

Thursdays 26th July, 2nd, 9th & 30th

August, and 6th September

Gallery open until 8pm, ticketed

Ebb&Flow events 7–9.30pm

Ebb&Flow

five exciting Thursday evening events of spoken word and music inspired by the site and the makers' work; ticketed evenings include a visit to the Makers at the Mill exhibition and a short guided tour of the mill.

The House Mill

is owned by the River Lea Tidal Mill Trust, Registered Charity No. 292336, and is managed and staffed entirely by volunteers. 10% of sales at the exhibition and all profits from Ebb&Flow will be used to support the Trust. Information at www.housemill.org.uk
